DISCRIPTION PRICE GREATLY REDUCED

UNDAY-For one yess, $2 50; For six the Democratic party? menths, $1 E; For three months, 75 cents.
WEEKLY-For one year, $250; For six months, 21 25 For three months, 25 cents.
NE #8 DEALERS, AGENTS, ETC.-News paper Bealers, Express Agents, Country

Under the above heading, the Atlanta New Era, the leading and ablest Radical paper in Georgis, pats the Courier Journal on the back, treats it with as much respect as a new con-his, that, the amendments having unwise to overthrow them if we had the power,

We see from the last Coffeeville Times, that our former fellow-citizen, self a candidate to represent Yalobu-Mr. Wimberly will be gratified to Fourth regiment, and is one of the me, even in the eleventh hour, a etter or more competent man appear. bribe-takers?

only of this county but of the State this matter I am actuated only by the selves opposed to the nominapurest of motives, and the honor of tion of Horace Greeley because sing able to benefit my fellow citiustified in reiterating that naught but could have induced me to take this nabobs. There is something plausible aside, until we have possession once practice, because it involves two indriven the hyenas, who fatten on the until we are no longer ground in the Disguise it as we may, we cannot dust by the enormity of taxation; un-til bankruptcy no longer stares us in the face. When these banks results the face. When these happy results are accomplished and the country is

With these few remarks I beg to subait my name to the people I am so willing to serve. With respect, etc., I remain yours, truly,
A. T. WIMBERLY,
Coffcoville, Miss., Aug. 2, 1871.

tion in saying it will go for the Democratic nominees, platform or no platform, Departure or ne Departure.

That is the Appeal's position. But it is far from following, now we are in the preparatory stages of forming a national platform, that either of us should go for the Departure, should go for the Departure, should go for the Departure, and every section of the country, according to Senator Morton, when and which opposite that the stage without tasting of the bitter cup the preparatory stages of torming a national platform, that either of us should go for the Departure, which,
according to Senator Morton, when and which opposite that tariff, may receive the support of the stage without tasting of the bitter cup the preparate for fallen greatness. And the reason after the bull charged a third the bull charged a
third the bull charged a third time upon the bear, when he was third time upon a stouch.
The reason after the bull charged a third time upon a stouch to the reason why Hamlet deding't want to have anything to do with the de'il.
The was because he didn't want to have anything to do with the de'il.
The was tage without tasting of the bitter cup
the reason after the bull charged a third the limit is, there have been few such.
The resident preparatory at a stage without tasting of the bear, when he was the reason why Hamlet deding't want to have anything to do with the de'il.
The was taseful want to have anything to do with the reason why Hamlet deding't want to have a proved to the reason why Hamlet deline to the re is from disloying, one on an insection of particular systems of the control of

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL, at all in the process, except that which will destroy the inventor. Will the Advertiser and Mail tell us why an DALLY-For one year (excissive of Sunday), adoption of Radical principles, in part SIG 00; For all months, $5 63; For three of whole, should increase the vote of Senator Morton's Speech Again. The speech of Senator Morton, on which we commented yesterday, dedescenants, Postmesters, Depot Agents, and rives its importance from the fact that any friends of the MEMPHIS APPEAL, its author is known to be the mouthregular subscribers, remitting to us the samount less ten per cent, or five per cent who will do so, are requested to procure piece of President Grant. Morton, in tance what appeared to me to be eight last, which is described as being one more subscribers we will send our Mammore subscribers we will send our Mamfor the Democratic party in the next stood—their features were so indistinguishable, their dress as absolutely to covered with clay, their flesh so like their dress—that I assure your lordships that till I approached them and ships that till I a

SUNDAY APPEAL

ism in the next canvass, then indeed will the Democracy achieve an easy triumph. Morton tells the country triumph. Morton tells the country that the victories won by the Union soldiers were worthless if the Government they fought to save is to be overthrown by traitors recently engaged in treason. He seems ism in the next canvass, then indeed will the indeed and the indeed will the Democracy achieve an easy triumph. Morton tells the country triumph. Morton tells engaged in treason. He seems to forget that the Confederate traitors have abandoned their treason, and are now giving their allegiance to the Constitution, the laws, and the men, women and children to a point who had been summoned on the Union, and that the only traitors now engaged in treason, are such traitors vert as a circuit-riner would give to as Morton; for every act which strikes scenes who had in him the sentiments where, some seven hours after the declares that in the following extract down the rights of States, reserved by necessities and our volition agree in President with the powers of a dictator, and place him above the law, was been incorporated into the Constitu-tion, it is at once as inexpedient to fight for the overthrow as it would be any which ever was entertained by a Confederate in the Southern States. Go to the soldiers who survived the conflict with the Confederacy, and ask them if they braved the perils and hardships of the war to establish the despotism and corruption which now prevail in our Government. Did they self a candidate to represent Yalobu-sha county in the next Mississippi sha county in the next Mississippi that personal government sons in receipt of £3, £4, or £5 wages sons in receipt of £3, £4, or £5 wages brows, through the center of the left was to result from Gettysburg? In the clay fields for a few shillings, back of the neck around just below the parents themselves are riot-while the parents themselves are riot-Mr. Wimberly will be gratined to of their armies in the battles of ing in pot houses in every form of eye opens, and you have very nearly his election, as his only opposition is a a party in power which would tramcarpet-bag negro from Memphis. No truer patriot, no more gallant soldier, drew a sabre during the late grand struggle for freedom than A. T. Wimstruggle for thieves and political prostitutes with Fourth regiment, and is one of the few survivors. The people of Memphis, where Mr. Wimberly has so many friends, will be rejoiced to hear many friends, will be rejoiced to hear of his triumph in the approaching election. We give below his card announcing himself a candidate:

**Editors Times—In your issue of the 15th ult. I received a call from my friends to appear as a candidate for the Legislative member for this caunty.

**Editors Times—In your issue of the 15th ult. I received a call from my friends to appear as a candidate for the Legislative member for this caunty.

**Editors Times—In your issue of the 15th ult. I received a call from my friends to appear as a candidate for the Legislative member for this caunty.

**Editors Times—In your issue of the 15th ult. I received a call from my friends to appear as a candidate for the Legislative member for this caunty.

**Editors Times—In your issue of the 15th ult. I received a call from my friends to appear as a candidate for the Legislative members is absent the whole gang has to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work assigned to it, and if any one of its members is absent the whole gang has to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work assigned to it, and if any one of its members is absent the whole gang has to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work and saving and Nashville fight for the degradation of their own race and countrymen, and to inquire into the state of the agricultural laborers had disclosed the existence of an appalling amount of your properties. The condition of their own race and countrymen, and the experiment will prove a success. The scalp has every appearance of being healthy, and the patient saving to it, and if any one of its members is absent the whole gang has to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work. The committee appointant to stop work and the experiment will prove a success. The scalp has every appearance of being healthy. The committee appointant to the work assigned to it, and if any one of its members is absent t the Legislative member for this county. It is control of negroes and carpet-bagof what might be seen and heard her neck. Should she recover and the every day in the brickfields. There is call attach itself, it will be one of thinking and hoping that some better. man might be chosen; but have since sustain policies by which political been so repeatedly urged that I have rings and monopolists and rejuited to this toll "an utter absence of modes." seen so repeatedly urged that I have rings, and monopolists and privileged ty, vice Beginning at an age when vice low decided to accept the position, classes have made serfs of the work- ought to be utterly unknown, stunted

Itw ill be seen from Morton's speech that he favors a tariff of incidental protection to our home manufacturers. been brought up long before they prise describes the scene thus: at large, should be convinced that in Many Radicals have announced them- could be considered accountable eing able to benefit my fellow citihe is in favor of a protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed

My history, as a man and soldier,
and now it seems Morton has placed

Lorace Greeley because agreed to, and her Majesty—that is to say, the Government—is consequentbe is in favor of a protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed
by requested "to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested "to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and now it seems Morton has placed by requested to take into considera—

The protective tariff;
and the protective tariff;
are protective tariff;
and the protective tarif is open to the closest scrutiny, and I Grant upon Greeley's platform. The tion" the state of these wretches. The bear, a large Coast Rauge animal any one to find in it even the great laboring masses have always common welfare of our country order to enrich the manufacturing find time to recommend legislation in took up his stand near the opposite ssue, I believe the duty of the hour from a revenue tariff; but the policy demands that all such trifles be set is false in theory and iniquitous in levied upon one interest for the benence more ours, then court houses and fit of another; and the thing is still cunty-seat discussions may be once the same, whether we contemplate it the same, whether we contemplate it as a primary object or a necessary result—whether we accomplish it by indirection or in a straight-forward way. By the operations of the principle of incidental protection, principle of incidental protection, where is the Fire to Fight the Berti is made to pay an annual tribute of from power.

The Montgomery Advertiser and manufacturers. Grant and the Radi-The Montgomery Advertiser and manufacturers. Grant and the Radi-laurel is yet green, passing from the second, which much resembled the stage without tasting of the bitter cup first; but soon after the bull charged a they have inoculated with their own righteousness for about a century, in extirpating the accursed thing all over the world, but this is what Lord Shaftesbury, in the House of Lords, says he saw in the brickfields, and there are 30,000 such animated pillars of clay in happy England:

As I approached I saw in the dismore subscribers we will send our Manuschital languages paper unit for the Democratic party in the next send that have first and the office of the own of the send the Could anything more degrading, can no one help me?"

Supported by friends, she walked conceived? Could it be dealed that they had brought down these wound was dressed by the physicians, declares that in the following extract the Courier-Journal goes "quite as far the Era has ever gone, or will ever go."

We are *topposed to the repeal fof the amendments. We accept them as final, we would not touch them if we could, and we could not if we would not touch them if we could, and we could not if we would. Our peoples have now have a stail the safety and the first same and th der that they might minister by their to arise that the proper treatme their parents. The evidence of the the only chance for life.

in the clay fields for a few shillings, back of the neck around just below while the parents themselves are riotthe Wilderness would establish beastly luxury."

The Bishop of London—in whose scalp above that line having been torn off, carrying with it both eyebrows. fields are divided into sections, each accident that if she had been permitauthority? Did they march with man at the head of it paying it. ted, as she desired, within a few min-ingmen of the country, and divided frames arising from overwork and our national legislature into gangs of of an improper character, young tween a bull and a bear. It took women universally becoming mothers before they were wives, and bringing instant, in Piper's Opera House, and up their children to the same wretched the bull and the bear live to rejoice the agricultural interest of the country is made to pay an annual tribute of millions for the benefit of the rich manufacturers. Grant and the Radiimpartial weight upon every interest should go for the Departure, which, according to Senator Morton, when accepted and carried out in good faith, fully perfects the proposed mission, and is the "crowning glory" of Radicalism itself. We must compromise at least, by making such a platform

Thus fades away Kossuth among the flower gardens of Italy. A pleas-ant picture for the world, but, oh, factory in Elgin, Illinois, on Monday of suffering and humiliation that made instant; after which, with little supthem lower in the scale than the beasts port, she walked to and got into the of the field? No man could visit such carriage that conveyed her home, of a man or the feelings of a Christian accident, the scalp was replaced upon be said that the sufferings of these as has the misfortune of this young hapless children were occasioned by lady. Prepossessing in appearance, many cases-that the avarice and cu- anxiety was manifested by every one sidity of the parents had stifled in and when it became known that there them all the feelings of natural affection, and these little children were sicians as to the proper mode of treat sent to slave in these brickfields in or- ment in the case, a new fear seemed earnings to the luxury and rapacity of might not be adopted, and thus lose naster bricklayer showed that "per- Strike a line from between the eye-

Barbarous Scenes in the West, Virginia City, Nevada, has wit

vicious indulgence, songs and stories nessed its anxiously-awaited fight befate to which they themselves had that it is over. The Territorial Enter-"By eight o'clock the theater was crowded, in ten minutes more it was Lord Shaftesbury's motion was crammed, and twenty minutes after does heaven! "For the land or considerable and in extraction of the continuous and the same case, and the langer case and the langer case, and the langer case, and the langer case Good heaven! "To take into consideration"—that is all. Perhaps, in seven years more, "her Majesty" may the bars for a time, then went and the bars for a time, then went and have turned out the first pair.

ls it hat Slavery.

O, no; "slavery cannot breathe in England," that holy country whose philanthropists have been busy by philanthropists have been busy by ifficiant valuable.

In it hat Slavery.

In ame, the Hungarian. He is now preparing an index of species, never fight no more. An immesse hooting followed. All was a confused uproar of voices—some crying one thing and some another. About all that could some another. About all that could be longs, in the "notorious New York to understood was that the Brown." be understood was that the "many-headed monster" was fearfully angry and awfully dissatisfied, and the fight of the cage, and soon a rush was made for the stage by men carrying chairs and whatever else they could get held of, which they thought might be used to good advantage in stirring up the animals. Soon over a hundred men were upon the stage, crowding against and beating upon the bars.

of volunteer committee began operations.

A cry for fire-crackers was at once raised, and the cry was instantly answered by a big package being thrown the stage. The package was upon the stage. The package was opened, and a man was about to light the lot, when the property man of the theatre interfered, saying they would set the bullding on fire. Had the crackers gone into the den, the ations of a sufferer of this pestilence of chances are that both bull and bear the Ganges, would establish the fact would have come ont.

now freely used upon both animals, and the crowd succeeded in getting about as many rounds out of the animals as they had seen before the extended to the following preventive, and says that it will be found of great value, as the animals. Our people have now have not been thoroughly putified by seen a bull and bear fight; and we fire. A judicious use, internally, of venture to say that they will never few drops of spirits of camphor, daily, care to see another—prodding the ani- destroys the animalcule as fast as mounts to little.

THINGS WISE AND OTHERWISE.

Court plaster-kisses. Rich music-a million air. A rising man-a balloonist. Hard to beat-a boiled egg. A long drink-an hour glass. A notice of a peal-lightning. He presches well who lives well. A relative beauty-a pretty cousin. A noose-paper-a marriage certifi-A paper that takes-a sheriff's war-

He that is hasty fishes in an empty The less wit a man has, the less he nows he wants it.

Why is love like a potato? Because t shoots from the eye. A consolation for the ladies-This vorld abounds in him-perfections. The three great conquerors of the Prefer loss before unjust gain, for he utters loud cries of joy that soon that brings grief but once; this for-

An Oregon toast over a cup of the rdent-"Here's what makes us wear When a pickpocket pulls at your watch tell him plainly that you have no time to spare. Why is the treadmill like a true nvert? Because its turning is the result of conviction. You may glean knowledge by reading, but you must separate the chaff from the wheat by thinking. We have no right to put the earth

Speaking of apples, it is remarkable to them, so as to reconcile them by

Hildebrand, the tamous Missouri his constitution is broken; he has the Ku-Klux nightmare, the Salt Lake cancer, the African leprosy, the Fenian riekets, the bond-boklers'

Poles armed with bayonets were gated and diffused by animaleule. mals to make them fight is a cruel they enter the system, thereby arusiness, and when seen the fight resting the disease." It will thus be seen that our correspondent in the premises is fully convinced that the animalcule theory solves the mystery as to the real character of the Asiati pestilence; and the testimony he has given us from his own observations upon the subject is entitled to the spe cial attention of scientific men in Eu rope, who now have the opportunity for the full investigation we have sug-

How Menkeys ere Captured. Monkeys are pretty common, yet as all the families are remarkably nning, has it ever occurred to the reader how they are taken? Pitfalls will take a lion, and the famished monster will after a few days starvamonkeys eaught? The ape family resembles man. Their voices are human. They love liquer, and fall. In Darfour and Sennaar, the natives make a fermented beer, of which the monkeys are passionately fond. Aware of this, the natives go to the parts of the forest frequented by the monkeys, and set on the ground calabashes full of the enticing liquor. As soon as the monkey sees and tastes it, he utters loud cries of joy that soon at the soon are always and the standard are are always and the standard are are always and set on the ground calabashes full of the enticing liquor. As soon as the monkey sees and tastes it, he utters loud cries of joy that soon at the soon are always and the standard are are always and the standard are are always and are always and are always and are always and are always are possible. There's Education is in proportion to the vanished years.

There's Alcas and Jersel, a working and their satisfaction is in proportion to the vanished years.

There's Alcas and Jarne are siy one of this a charm.

There's Alcas and Jersel, a working and their satisfaction is in proportion to the vanished years.

There's Alcas and Jarne are siy one of this and Anon are always are passionately for the proportion to the vanished years.

There's Alcas and Jarne are siy one of this are say on the farm.

There's Alcas and Jarne are siy one of the proportion to the vanished years.

There's Alcas and Anon are always are one, and all pilks a charm.

There's Alcas and Anon are always are one, and all pilks a charm.

There's Alcas and Anon are always are passionately killed near Cape Colony, was en route to the diamond fields, where he hoped to make a fortune, at the time of the accident. He was only twenty-four years of age, and is represented as a very promising young man. monkeys caught? The ape family rebegins, and then in a short time they show all degrees of intoxication. Then the negroes appear. The few who came too late to get fuddled escape. The drinkers are too far gone to distrust them, but apparently take them for larger species of their genius. The negroes take some up, and these begin to weep and cover them with maudlin kisses. When a negro takes one by the hand to lead him off, the nearest monkey will cling to the one who thus finds a support, and endeavor to go off also. Another will grasp at him, and so on, until the negro leads a staggesting line of ten or in mourning for our own trouble, but many of us do it, nevertheless.

As daylight can be seen through very small holes, so little things will illustrate a person's character.

gro leads a staggering line of ten or twelve fipsy monkeys. When finally brought to the village, they are securely caged and gradually sobered down; but for two or three days a gradually

THE EDITOR'S QUESTS. BY WILL M. CAREETON. The following, from the pen of the new and gifted young post of the Northwest, was read by the author before the Michlthe flower gerdens of Italy. A pleasant picture for the world, but, oh, how bitter an experience for one who has filled the measure of its applicance.

Lesing and Regaining a Scalp.

An accident occurred at a watch factory in Figh, Illinois on Monday gan State Publishers' Association, at its recent annual meeting at Bay City. We commend its perusal to all who would en-Joy arare literary treat, and at the same time imbibo, in a pleasant way, some knowledge of the peculiar trials and Chairs were thrown from the par-quette and orchestra against the bars of the case, and soon a graph was

The Editor sat in his sanctum, his countenance furrowed with care.

His mind astine bottom of business, his feet at the top of a chair, his chair-sam as elbow supporting, his right hand upholding his head.

His eyes on his dusty old table, with different documents spread;
There were thirty long pages from Howier, with under-lined capitals topoped.

And a short disquisition from throwier, requesting his newspaper stopped;
There were lyrics from Gusher, the poet, concerning sweet however and applyin, and a stray gens from Plodder, the farmer, describing a couple of halfers;
There were hillest from beautiful maidens, and bills from a grocer or two.

And his bed leader hitches to a latter, which inquired if he wrots it, or who?

There were ticked in the presence to festivals, parties, and shows.

Wrapped in notes, with "Please give us a notice," demural slipped in a the close; in short, as his eye took the able, and rango'er its ink spattered trash.

There was nothing it did not encounter, excepting perhaps it was cash. The Editor dreamily pondered on several Shirley Brooks is now the editor of the London Punch, to which, for years, he has been one of the cleverest contributors.

Shirley Brooks is now the editor of the London Punch, to which, for years, he has been one of the cleverest contributors.

On the subscribed "just to help him, and wordy encouragement lant, and had given him plenty of counsel, but never had paid him a cent!

On vinegar kind-nearied people were feeding him every hour, who as wonth to work they were daing, but wondered that "printers are sour;"

Shirley Brooks is now the editor of the London Punch, to which, for years, he has been one of the cleverest contributors.

Mr. Charles Brooks, a wealthy Huddersnield manufacturer, hes given $150,000 for building and endowing a home for convalescentain that city.

The late Mrs. Margaret Kalbfus, of Bultimore, left $125,000, three-quarters wondered that "printers are sour;"

Who as who the work they were doing, but wondered that "printers are sour;" before the first filed which has recently on several intelligent townsmen, whose kindness was so without stint. Impartial Society and the Aged Woman tools him just what he should print; on men who has readered him favors, and neight pushed forward their claims. So long as the gaper was crowled with locals containing their names; on the first filteen ground their names; on the first filteen ground the filteen ground

He had it; for lo, on the threshold, a slow and reliable tread, and a farmer lovaded the sanctum, and these are the words that he said: good mornin', sir, Mr. Printer; how is your ing.

make an editor outen o' him. My family stock is increasin' while other

"There's Abram and Albert is married, each, workin' my farm for himself.
And Sam smashed his nose at a shootin', and so he is laid on the abelf.

The rest of the boys are all growin', 'cept this little runt, which is Jim;
And I thought that perhaps I'd be makin' an editor outen o' him.

le ain't no great shakes for to labor, though I've labored with him a good deal I've labored with him a good deal hid give him some strappin 'good arguments
I know he contin't help but to feel, ut he's built out of second-class timber, and nothin' about him is big, xeartin' his appoilts only, and there he's as good as a pig.

"I keep him carryin' luncheous, and allin' and bringto' the jugs.

And take him among the pertatoes, and set him to pickin' the bugs.

And then there is things to be adom a helpin' the women in the doors.

There's charmin' and washin' of dishes, and other descriptions of chores.

But he don't take to nothin' but victuals, and he'll never be much I'm afraid.

So I thought it would be a good notion to learn him the editor's trads.

His body's too small for a farmer, his judg ment is rather too alim.

But I thought we pernaps could be makin' as his judg ment is rather too alim.

But I thought we pernaps could be makin' as his judg ment are recent smiddle in Mobile, Als., of Henry B. Couch, son of Rev. A. B. Couch, a Baptist clergyman, who two years ago killed

GOLDEN HAIR Contributed to the Percelers Its stair; A ruetle, and a footstep soft as summer air. I did not see the eyes; and yet I knew That they were tender, doep and blue. But what to me," feald, with quick surprise 'Are golden bair, fair mes, and tender eyes." And, from my revery starting, 'mid to throug listened to the movie and the song.

The dance was called "Take partners for And how it happened I am wondering still, ant with a friend I bowed before a chair, and rising, met the glance of Golden Hair The face indeed was fair and true, And its with eyes of tenderest bine at the sweet fire I knew was hid Then in the dance a queen she went, And to each figure grace and beauty "ill to myself I whispered, "Heart, beware hou'rt tangled in a mesh of golden hair."

PERSONAL.

Baltimore, left $125,000, three-quarters of her entire estate, to the Humane been noder hearing in the criminal "Author of all things." The Louis-ville Ledger trusts that he did not de-sign to invoke his Maker in any responsibility for that book about farm- to four months' imprisonment. The

Victor Hugo's fortune is estimated season he organized an expedition, at over two million francs, and yet composed of five members of the

Alexander II. and mother of Alexander III., at Newbattle Abbey, long in

The son of Martin Farquhar Tup-per, the proverbial proser, lately killed near Cape Colony, was en route and appearance of the strata is studied, the position, extent, charac-ter and appearance of the veins of ore noted, and the methods of working years of age, and is represented as a will be written and published with a very promising young man.

Mr. George Grote, the eminent historian, died worth about $600,000 in ing will be established in the Far personal property alone. He bequeathed the copyright of his "History of Greece" and of other works, vantages of an institution so situated. and all his books, to his wife for her life, and after her decease to the University of London, Burlington

Gardens.

you; I not enough; you go market buy. Foolish go market to buy. The new married man come. All in to dinner; shut the door. Byand by the foolish come and say, Boss, boss, open door.' He say, I no they you; you no my.' Must be mart, no understand the day." Several declarations of adhesion to Some of these declarations come from the East, and from these churches which, like in doctrine, are unlike discipline to the Church of Rome The Patriarch of the Maronites, the Patriarch of the United Greek Church and the Greeian Melchiate Archbisho of Aleppo are the bishops of this class who have sent in their submission to the Holy Father. Thirteen Hunga-rian bishops have adopted a similar

A great meeting of Protestants, both laymen and elergymen, is fixed to take place in Berlin on the 12th of October. Among the signers of the address calling together the meeting is Count Molike. The questions to be discussed are: First—What have we to do in order that a spiritual heritage may remain to our people from the great years 1870 and 1871? Second— The community of the Evangelical The community of the Evangelical Provincial Churches in the German Empire. Third—the co-operation of the Evangelical Church in the social mestions of the present.

According to correspondence re-eived from Vienna by the Augsburg Allegemeirs Zeitung, the collision be-tween the Khadive of Egypt and the Sultan is close at hand. The Khedive, it is said, has arrived at the term of his concessions, and is determined to yield no further. "I have," he is reported to have exclaimed, "induced yself to give up my coat; my shirt stantinople, a splendid jeweled sounfbox of the estimated value of $12,500, and finally contaived to be making the blood of an editor boi!

And so one may see that his feelings could hardly be said to be support.

The receipt in his address at a some planant occurrence his awakened emotions to south;

Horace Greeley, in his address at condemned to six months imprisonawakened emotions to south;

"Author of all things." The Louis"Author of all things." The Louisother prisoners were acquitted.

"But I hushed 'emright up in a minit and said a good word for you;
I told 'em I believed you was tryin' to do just as well as you knew;
And I told 'em that some one was sayin', and wroover 'was it is so.
That you can't expect much of no oue man, nor blame him for what he don't know.
But, layin' saide picasary for business, I've brought you my little boy lim.
And I thought! would see it you couldn't make an editor outen of him.

And I thought! would see it you couldn't make an editor outen of him.

And I thought! would see it you couldn't make an editor outen of him. place visited, and these are forwarded visited the character of the strata is and reducing fully inspected. to make a fortune, at the time of the notes of all observations have been be many years before a school of min-

The London Timer, Aug. 4th, says: "Wise men look at facts more than ar-A note from Mr. Geo. J. Holyoake guments, and as a fact there can be no explains that the illness of Thomas question how much of the power and Hughes resulted from overwork. He even life of the Monarchy resides in had purposed spending his Parlia-mentary vacation in Switzerland, but Lord Derby says institutions to be dehas already been ordered out of Lon-don, and has gone to Great Malvern, justification on their face. If so, no ustification on its face whenever